

Self-Pay Options for Rehabilitation Services at Northwestern Medicine

We offer a self-payment option for people who do not have insurance or do not want to use it. With the self-pay option, you can pay before or at the time you get care.

If you choose this out-of-pocket option, you may pay with:

- Debit card
- Credit card

This may be a fit for you if you do not have insurance or do not want to use it. With the self-pay option, you can pay before or at the time you get care.

Self-Pay Services

Services that can be self-pay include:

Self-Pay Evaluation

The evaluation is your first visit with your therapist. They will review your health history and abilities. You and your therapist will develop a treatment plan based on your assessment results and your goals. Each of these evaluations is $300.

Self-Pay Treatment Session

After your evaluation, you will attend therapy sessions to start your treatment plan. Pricing may vary depending on the services you receive. If you have any questions, please ask your therapist.
